

project 142

July 24, 2016

Dear John and Sandy,

One for the money, two for the show, three to get ready, and four to... GO! The origin of this phrase may be lost in time, but over the years it always seems to have been used in one of two instances, either in a children's playground jingle or actually throwing someone into the pool on a hot summer day. Either way, it's also fitting for us right here and now. After some wonderful time visiting family and friends here in Georgia and Florida, we are set to go and wanted to send a final stateside letter to say thank you very much to everyone that has made Project 142 a reality.

In our last newsletter, we presented a rough timeline of our plans for July and August. Upon arrival and getting settled in Jordan, we are estimating our next newsletter will be sent out within the first week of October. Although this will be approximately two months from this letter, we believe this time will allow us to get fairly acquainted with our new surroundings, thereby allowing us to convey to you some of our initial experiences within the Arab culture. Expecting to be bombarded by a multitude of new sensations, sights, sounds and smells, we should have plenty to share.

Also included with the October newsletter will be something we are calling "Communication Guidelines." These guidelines will let you know the safe and proper ways to communicate with us in a sensitive, restricted Islamic environment like we will be in. Wise planning for safe ways to communicate across an unsecured internet is just one of the many ways we are taking our safety and wellbeing into consideration. Thank you for helping us with this.

We started Project 142 together, and now we're departing the U.S. in the same way, together. Thank you so very much for continuing to be a part of this team to reach the Muslim people with the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Our best to you,

Patrick and Teresa Houghteling
