

FULLY KNOWN MINISTRIES

who you are | what you have | how to get it

OCTOBER 2020

In the last six months, we've ministered in China, Malaysia, the United Kingdom, Scotland, India and domestically across the United States. By means of social media, YouTube, Skype, Zoom and even the cell phone, we have reached thousands of people with the message of who they are, what they have and how to get the promises of God contained in the Gospel of Jesus Christ. And all without traveling one bit.

It's been incredible to see the Lord work, opening doors and creating opportunities for ministry during times when most of the world is shut down. With open invitations awaiting us in the Middle East and around the world to speak in person, we're excited for when one day soon we'll travel again without restrictions.

Teresa was recently interviewed by Andrew Wommack during Charis Bible College's Healing Is Here Conference. During the thirty-minute Q&A session, Teresa explained how receiving revelation of God's Word had allowed her to be free from the lupus, Sjögren's syndrome and a host of other disorders that were affecting her body. It was a determined focus on the Word of God that broke these shackles of affliction and allowed healing to manifest itself in her body.

We've been very thankful for positive testimonials like the following that have been pouring in since the interview:

"I heard your testimony this past week watching the AW healing conference. The Lord spoke directly to me when you started talking about the four principles: remove distractions, pray for wisdom, pray in the Spirit, and keep the Word in the forefront of your mind. I just want to thank you for sharing your heart. I started applying those principles again to my life because I was familiar with that concept years ago but have not been putting it into practice. I will say this, this weekend I was dealing with some health issues, but I started taking authority over sickness and I can honestly say that I am already seeing the results!"

We certainly encourage you to take some time to watch her interview and gain valuable insight on how to receive your own revelation. Search on YouTube for Healing Is Here 2020: Day 1, Morning Session. Her interview with Andrew starts at 2:27:00 into the video. We believe you will be blessed.

Another exciting milestone for Fully Known Ministries was reached this week when we received the final proof copy of Teresa's highly anticipated book, The "Unhealed" Believer: What To Do When You've Done It All. It's due for an official launch with an exciting Facebook LIVE interview with Julieann Hartman on October 20, 2020, at 8pm EST. Make sure to log on and check out the Q&A about this exciting book detailing Teresa's journey and transformation that took her from sick to whole by revelation and faith in the Word of God.

Still moving forward in many other avenues of ministry, both domestically and internationally, we want to thank you for continuing to support us, both prayerfully and financially. You are vital in enabling us to effectively carry the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the nations, discipling believers around the world.

If you are not yet a partner with Fully Known Ministries, please prayerfully consider supporting us. By your one-time gift or partnering with us, you will be part of a team that is providing a solid foundation that is causing lives to be changed by the Word of God.

All our best,

Patrick and Teresa Houghteling
