

Why do we do what we do? Why do we go to the places we go? Why do we proclaim what we do and teach what we teach? Why do missionaries make sacrifices, giving up the comfort and security of an easier life to live as a stranger in an unaccepting foreign land?

...AND THERE IS SALVATION IN NO ONE ELSE.
FOR THERE IS NO OTHER NAME
UNDER HEAVEN GIVEN AMONG MEN
BY WHICH WE MUST BE SAVED.
ACTS 4:12

The answer to all this is: Because Jesus is worth it. Without Him, no one – Christian, Muslim, Hindu, Buddhist, Baptist, Methodist, Catholic, Lutheran, or any non-denominational Charismatic believer – will enter the kingdom of heaven. No one will earn their way into eternal life by their good works or any socio-political affiliation. He is the only way, the only truth, and the only life.

Recently returning from the Middle East, we wanted to share a brief update on how the mission went. We apologize that we cannot give you exacting details on mission specifics, such as locations and plan details, but this is necessary to protect those missionaries and their families living within the region.

Under the missional arm of Fully Known Ministries, Project 142, Patrick traveled to an undisclosed country within the Middle East, implemented a plan, and soon found himself adapting on the fly. Proving the adage true – “No start-up plan ever survives implementation” – we found that some things worked, and some things didn’t. Circumstances you face when at your destination can’t always be accurately anticipated before you actually go! Quite honestly, the method we weren’t planning on being the primary gospel distribution method became the most effective one, which we will now improve upon and utilize in future missions.

Our next step is continuing the last command we received: “Go.” The only position for people of God to be in is to launch the offensive. Attack and go. We’re not going to be defensive, we’re not compromising, and we’re certainly not going to desert any fight just because the mission field we choose to operate in is challenging. We’re in it to win despite any enemies against us. Our plan for the next trip is simple: Stick to what the Lord tells us to do, identify the next location, and go again. We believe the seeds we plant will one day reap a harvest.

This is an exciting time for us as God continues to do amazing things around the world. God bless you and your family as you consider supporting God’s plans for us in carrying out the Great Commission.

All our best,

Patrick and Teresa Houghteling

CONTACT INFORMATION

To learn more about Fully Known Ministries, as well as read articles and view video teachings, visit our website at fullyknownministries.com.

email: info@fullyknownministries.com

Fully Known Ministries

@fullyknownmin

Fully Known Ministries

GIVING INFORMATION

- Go to fullyknownministries.com
- Click “Donate” in the upper right-hand corner
- Follow the instructions toward the bottom of the page

OR

- You can send a check made out to “Fully Known Ministries” in the enclosed self-addressed envelope

Let us not glide through this world and then slip quietly into heaven, without having blown the trumpet loud and long for our Redeemer, Jesus Christ. Let us see to it that the devil will hold a thanksgiving service in hell, when he gets the news of our departure from the field of battle.

FACTS & THOUGHTS

Arabic is a Semitic language that many sources indicate has more than 12 million distinct words! To put that into context, the Oxford English Dictionary includes just over 170,000 words.

24-27%
of the world's population have not had the gospel presented to them. This translates to very close to two billion individuals,
ONE IN FOUR
without any knowledge of the Savior!

The longest word in Arabic is reported to be افاستسقيناكموها

which is 15 letters and roughly translated as:
"Did we ask you to give it to us to drink?"

Arabic often combines an entire sentence into one word.

The longest word in English is Pneumonoultramicroscopicsilicovolcanoconiosis

which is a term for a lung disease caused by inhaling silica dust.

The point being, English doesn't combine an entire sentence into one word!

WHAT IS THE LEVANT?

The Levant is a geographic term referring to an area in the Middle East. It includes the historic areas of Lebanon, Jordan, Palenstine, Israel and Syria.

ASSURANCE OF SALVATION

CHRISTIANITY

Whoever has God's Son has life; whoever does not have his Son does not have life. I write this to you who believe in the Son of God, so that you may know you have eternal life." 1 John 5:12-13 NLT

ISLAM

Islam cannot offer anyone assurance of salvation in this life. Only on Judgment Day will people discover whether they have been accepted by Allah. This, of course, means nobody can have any real security in this life as to where they will be in the next.